

April 2011

Dear Parent/Carer,

The English department is planning to take 15 students who are interested in the possibility of studying for an English Degree to an A Level visit day at the Manchester Metropolitan University. This will take place on Wednesday June 29th and will run from 9:30am and finish at 3:30pm. There is no cost involved in the trip, however, the students will be expected to travel to and from the university themselves. A meeting point will be organised. Lunch will also be provided by the university.

This is an exciting opportunity for the students to gain some experience of university teaching and an itinerary is attached. Poet Laureate, Carol Anne Duffy, will conduct a poetry reading during the day and in addition to the sessions delivered by an impressive array of academics there will be an opportunity to meet and question current English students about studying at university.

Places will be allocated on a first come first served basis. If you wish your son/daughter to participate in the above activity please complete the attached reply slip and return it to Mr Price-Uden by Friday 6th May.

Yours sincerely,

Mr D Price-Uden
Trip Organiser
